Ken Chaison
NOVA Catholic Community

Dear Mr. Chaison,

We are very pleased to acknowledge NOVA Catholic Community's most recent donation of $200 (checks #7498 & 10007) and are extremely grateful for your generosity in supporting our organization's work to enhance the academic achievement and leadership skills of Latino and other immigrant students.

Since 1998, Edu-Futuro has empowered immigrant children, youth, and families through education and leadership development to succeed and contribute to their community, while teaching the broader community about Latin American cultures. These objectives are realized through the Emerging Leaders Program, a college prep initiative for Latino and other immigrant youth that also prepares parents to be advocates for their children in school.

With your help we will continue to strengthen our services to enable immigrant students to be successful in school and beyond.

Thank you for your belief and support of our work.

Sincerely,

Daniel Sarmiento
Executive Director
